VILLA'S FORCES OCCUPY OJINAGA

Rebels Inflict Crushing Defeat on Mexican Army.

SWARM ACROSS THE BORDER

Twenty-eight Hundred Federals, Six Generals, Two Hundred Thousand Rounds of Ammunition, Several Large Guns and Fifteen Hundred Civilians Fall Into Hands of American Boundary Patrol.

Presidio, Tex., Jan. 12.—Twenty-eight hundred Mexican federal soldiers, six Mexican generals, 200,000 rounds of ammunition, two cannons, four large field pieces and 1,500 civilian refugees are in the custody of the United States army border patrol as the result of the federal army's evacuation of Ojinaga, Mex., its flight to American territory and the occupation of the Mexican village by General Francisco Villa's rebel forces.

The distress of the refugees is intense. They have scant food and no shelter. Men, women, children, dogs, chickens and cattle are packed together in a space covering several acres.

From a military standpoint the situation was regarded as being without precedent, since in time of peace the United States army never has had to surround, disarm, hold in custody and care for so large a body of aliens. Less than five hundred cavalrymen handled the panic stricken mob of almost ten times their number.

Other results of the rebel successes which placed General Villa's army in undisputed control of a vast section of Northern Mexico are:

Federal Generals Marcedo, Castro, Orpinal, Romero, Aduno and Landra are in custody of the United States troops awaiting their disposition by the war department.

Several Generals Escape.

General Pascual Orozco and General Ynez Salazar, federal volunteer commanders, escaped along the border to some point remote from Presidio. Salazar was wounded. They were accompanied by General Caraveo and General Rojas and 300 cavalrymen.

Salazar and Orozco are being watched for in the United States on indictments charging them with violating the neutrality laws.

General Landra said he was certain all the federal generals escaped the rebels.

Charges of cowardice were made against Orozco, Salazar and Rojas. General Marcedo said these generals abandoned their troops at the beginning of the battle and thus weakened the federal defense.

The only generals who quit the battlefield with honor, General Marcedo said, were those who accompanied the federal army across the Rio Grande.

Camped in Ojinaga, for the possession of which he had been fighting less than twenty-four hours previously, General Villa started the work of establishing rebel government. He telegraphed to General Carranza:

"I have proved my ability to capture Ojinaga."

The whole sweep of land leading to the heights of Ojinaga appeared to have been plowed up by the frantic rout of the federal army and the eager scramble into the village of General Villa's rebels.

WARM SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN

Women Say They Will Give Democrats a Chance.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Plans for a vigorous nationwide campaign to secure a constitutional amendment giving suffrage to women were outlined by the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage. The program includes a schedule of "demonstrations" that will, according to the suffrage leaders, "awaken the country as never before to a realization of the issue and if necessary transfer the majority in congress to a party that will stand for suffrage."

"We are perfectly willing to have the Democrats pass the amendment, but if by the close of congress they have not taken action we will transfer their votes to a party that will act," Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs said in announcing the union's plans. "We are now giving them the opportunity of their lives and are waiting to see the result."

ALBANIA PREY OF FAMINE

Flour, Meat and Other Food Hardly Can Be Obtained.

Vienna, Jan. 12.—Private letters from Avlona depict Albania as the prey of famine and anarchy. Owing to lack of money business is at a standstill. Flour and meat are at exorbitant prices and other food can scarcely be obtained.

FLEES FROM SON'S DISGRACE

Father of Slayer of Duluth Policeman Disappears.

Duluth, an. 12.—"I cannot remain here and be forever disgraced." With these words Sam Zorola, father of Javan Zorola, confessed slayer of Patrolman Neil Mooney, packed his belongings and left the boarding house where he has lived alone with his son for more than two years. He left Duluth and would give no hint as to his destination.

DECLARES THAW PERFECTLY SANE

New Hampshire Commission Prepares Report.

MAY OBTAIN RELEASE ON BAIL

Men Who Examined Fugitive From Matteawan Declare Prisoner Is Not Now Afflicted With Any of the Mental Diseases From Which He May Have Been Suffering When He Killed Stanford White.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 12.—Harry Kendall Thaw would not be a public menace if he were released on bail, according to the report of the commission appointed by Federal Judge Aldrich to inquire into the state of Thaw's mentality.

The report says the commission finds Thaw is not now afflicted with any of the mental diseases from which he may have been suffering when he slew Stanford White.

While the commissioners say that they have reached "a definite and positive opinion as to the present mental condition of Thaw and his probable state of mind at the time of the homicide," they refrain from expressing this opinion in view of their instructions from the court not to embarrass any subsequent litigation where the broad question of insanity might be involved.

"Upon the question of menace or danger through the granting of bail, however, we may be permitted and probably are compelled," the report concludes, "to record our findings that whatever may have been the mental condition of Harry Kendall Thaw at the time of the homicide, upon which question we express no opinion, he is not now suffering from any of the forms of mental disease alleged by the prosecution at the time of the trial or subsequently thereto, namely—manic-depressive insanity, paranoia, dementia praecox or delusional insanity."

Liberty Would Not Be Menace.

"In our opinion it is reasonably probable that Harry Kendall Thaw's liberty under bail would not be dangerous or a menace to the public peace and safety."

The commission, which was appointed Dec. 17 last, consisted of General Frank S. Streeter, a lawyer of this city, as chairman; Dr. Morton Prince of Boston, Dr. G. Alderblumer, superintendent of Butler hospital for the insane, Providence, R. I., and Dr. Charles P. Bancroft, superintendent of the New Hampshire hospital for the insane of this city.

The report is now in the hands of the clerk of the court and will be considered by Judge Aldrich early in the present week in connection with the petition of Thaw for admission to bail under habeas corpus proceedings.

The receipt naming the commission the judge said after the prosecution of the report the interested parties would have an opportunity to be heard further before the question of bail finally is passed upon. No date for such a hearing has been set as yet.

After referring briefly to Thaw's second trial and his commitment to Matteawan state hospital as a victim of "manic depressive insanity," the report says the commission examined all the entries in the official record of the hospital relating to Thaw from Feb. 1, 1905, to the date of his escape from the institution, Aug. 17, 1912.

Transcripts of three cross-examinations of Thaw by counsel for the state of New York on habeas corpus proceedings instituted in his behalf were also inspected.

Mental examinations of Thaw were made by the commission during four days in December and from time to time afterward.

Careful physical examination to determine the presence or absence of structural or functional disturbance of the nervous system also was made.

YOUTH CONFESSES RIFLING MAIL POUCH.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Harry L. Watson, twenty-nine years old, of Belle Plaine, Ia., confessed to Chief Postal Inspector James E. Stuart here that he stole $15,000 from a mail pouch in Belle Plaine Jan. 7. The sum was in checks and money orders.

Attention of the police was called to him, it is said, when he attempted to purchase jewelry here, offering two checks for $400 each in payment.

WILL FRAME NEW CONTRACT

United Mine Workers' Convention Opens on Jan. 20.

Indianapolis, Jan. 12.—One thousand seven hundred and eighty-one delegates, representing 415,000 members, will attend the twenty-fourth international convention of the United Mine Workers of America, which will open here Jan. 20 and continue about three weeks. It will be the first meeting under the new constitution, which provides the conventions shall be held biennially.

According to President John F. White the convention will be without any factional fights which have envenomed previous gatherings. His report, he says, will show the membership has been almost doubled in the past two years, that the organization is in the best condition in its history and that there is little trouble except in Colorado.

A wage scale, to replace the present contract with the coal mine operators, which expires March 31 next, is the principal business. What the miners will demand will be determined by the delegates.

SUET IS A VALUABLE FOOD

Department of Agriculture Says It Is Waste to Throw It Away.

Washington, Jan. 12.—American housewives waste valuable food and increase the cost of living when they throw away suet or use it for soap-making, says the department of agriculture in a statement. Suet, the experts contend, contains the same food value as lard and is a satisfactory substitute for frying purposes and shortening. Cook books have misled the housewives, they say.

SIR ROBERT BOND.

Announces He Will Retire From Canadian Public Life.

RETIRE FROM PUBLIC LIFE

Former Newfoundland Premier Makes Public His Reason.

St. John's N. F., Jan. 12.—Sir Robert Bond, the former premier, announced his withdrawal from public life. In an open letter he gave his reasons alleged bad faith on the part of the Coakerites, otherwise known as the Fishermen's union, which, with the Liberals, formed the opposition led by Sir Robert against Sir Edward Morris, the present premier, in the general election last October.

OPERATORS EMPLOY TELEPHONE DEVICE

Secure Alleged Details of Strike Conferences.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 12.—Evidence said to have been gathered through a telephone device concealed in the office of attorneys for the Western Federation of Miners may play an important part in future developments of the copper strike situation.

It was learned operatives of a detective agency said that one of the instruments was in the Calumet offices of Angus W. Kerr and Edward F. Legendre for five weeks last summer and that more recently conversations between Charles H. Moyer, president of the federation, and C. N. Hilton, its chief counsel, were recorded by the same method in the Scott hotel, Hancock.

None of the men concerned in the conference seemed perturbed by the revelation.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, returned to Chicago and was in conference with Yanco Terlich, member of the executive council of the federation, and left later for Denver, where he makes his headquarters. He will familiarize himself with developments in the Colorado strike situation and return to this city later in the week.

YOUNG WOMAN KILLED IN PECULIAR MANNER.

Kansas City, Jan. 12.—Miss Nellie Russell, eighteen years old, a student from Blanche, Mo., shot and killed herself at the home of her brother in Kansas City, Kan. Miss Russell was attempting to demonstrate to a young man friend the harmless qualities of a revolver she thought was not loaded. A bullet entered her head, killing her instantly.

PREPARING FOR NEXT ELECTIONS

Parties Start Battle In All Doubtful States.

POSSIBLE SENATE CHANGES.

Terms of Thirty-two Members of Upper House Expire—Progressives to Be Big Factor In Determining Many Elections—House Likely to Remain Democratic—Daniels' Ambition.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 12.—[Special.]—Control of the next congress is the aim of the two great political parties, and it may be said that the Progressives claim to be one of the two great parties by reason of the vote cast for Roosevelt in 1912. However, it is generally recognized that the struggle will be between the Democrats and the Republicans, with the Progressives an important factor in the fight.

Control of the senate is what the Republicans desire, and it will be hard to obtain. The house will go according to a landslide, but landslides do not affect the southern states. Those states will send about the same number of Democrats to both house and senate. It is in the northern states where the political battle will be fought.

Possible Senate Changes.

The terms of thirty-two senators expire on the 4th of March, 1915, and their successors will be chosen during the present year. Of these seventeen are Republicans and fifteen Democrats. To the Democrats seats in place of Chamberlain of Oregon, Newlands of Nevada, Shively of Indiana, Smith of Maryland, Smith of Arizona and Thomas of Colorado. It is altogether likely that Bradley of Kentucky, a Republican, will be succeeded by a Democrat, and it is possible to elect Democrats in place of Gallinger of New Hampshire, Jones of Washington, Sherman of Illinois, Perkins of California and Root of New York.

What of Progressives?

Of course it depends upon whether the pendulum is swinging toward the Republican party to some extent, but more depends upon what the Progressives decide to do. If the Progressive party determines to run a Progressive candidate in every state where there is a senatorial election there may be added to the list where Democrats may succeed Republicans Brady of Idaho, Bristow of Kansas, Crawford of South Dakota, Cummins of Iowa, Gronna of North Dakota, Penrose of Pennsylvania and Stephenson of Wisconsin. With the Republicans and Progressives dividing the Republican vote in any of the states heretofore surely Republican the prospect of success for the Democrats is bright.

Will Affect the House.

As the senators are elected by the people, the same facts apply to both branches of congress, although the election by districts for the lower house makes a little difference. If the Progressives have candidates in the field for the house and the senate the probabilities are that the Democrats will control both branches of congress as a result of the election in 1914. Of course the Republicans have been predicting a Republican landslide and asserting that hard times will return the Republicans to power. And that is altogether possible, but the times will have to be hard enough to make the Progressives return to their old allegiance.

Canadian Wheat.

Those farmers who feared that Canadian wheat would come across the border and overwhelm them were needlessly alarmed, according to an authority from Canada. He says that Canadian wheat is going to the orient. When it was denied a market in this country the surplus found buyers in Japan and China. Jim Hill once said those people would consume much of the wheat produced in America.

At Uncle Sam's Expense.

Senator Catron of New Mexico met a man on a train near Denver whom he knew to be a resident of Mexico. The senator asked the man about the conditions and was informed that in the part whence he came there were no disturbances and few people were aware that there was any trouble about control of the government. "I have taken advantage of the general invitation of the United States government to come here and visit friends. The government pays my fare, as it does the fare of others who are coming out of Mexico."

The senator said the man was well able to pay his own way, but was one of quite a number who were willing to ride at Uncle Sam's expense.

Daniels' Ambition.

"I want to do something to improve the navy," remarked Secretary Daniels, explaining his recommendation for four vice admirals, which will mean real fleet commanders. "I want to leave a record of some good performed while I have been in office."

Coming from a Democratic secretary and going to a Democratic congress, it is quite likely that his recommendation will have effect. While congress may not authorize four vice admirals, it may be expected that at least two advances will be ordered for the commanders of the two fleets on the Atlantic and Pacific.

New York, Jan. 12.—The entire second cabin accommodation of the liner Olympic for the sailing of June 20 has been chartered by the Salvation Army to convey 700 officers and soldiers to London to attend the international congress. Miss Eva Booth, head of the Army in the United States, will be in charge and will be attended by her entire staff, with four brass bands, composed of 100 players.

URGES FREE TRADE ZONE

Illinois Solon Would Have Panama World Storehouse.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Representative Copley of Illinois is preparing a bill to make the Panama canal zone free trade territory in which merchants of the world may store goods waiting distribution to South America and the Far East. Mr. Copley's bill is inspired by Germany's free trade territory at Hamburg, Hongkong and Singapore also are free ports.

CARDINAL SERIOUSLY ILL

Martinelli's Mental Affliction Due to Overwork.

Rome, Jan. 12.—The condition of Cardinal Sebastiano Martinelli, prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, who has been ill for some time, has become more serious. The mental affliction caused by overwork has become accentuated and fears are expressed that he may become a victim of cerebral anemia in the same way as the late Cardinal Vives y Tuto.

VICTIMS ELDERLY BACHELORS

Evidence Indicates Murderer Became Enraged at Visits Young Girl Was Accustomed to Making to the Near by Homestead of the Two Aged Men—Young Woman Spurned Attention of the Slayer.

Duluth, Jan. 12.—Jealous of the visits sixteen-year-old Nora Hall made on two elderly bachelors of Paupores, Harry Reely, a farmer, said to be half-witted, shot and killed both men and then killed himself. He was thirty-five years old.

The victims are Sandy Rogers, sixty years old, and David Craig, fifty-seven years old. The men lived together. Rogers was found at the foot of a stairway with a gunshot wound in his neck. In another room Craig was found on a cot with the top of his head blown off.

The finding of Reely's body on the bank of the St. Louis river led to an investigation, which disclosed the other murders.

In a letter to Miss Hall Reely said that unless she stopped visiting the two bachelors he would kill them. The girl lived with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zearley, a short distance from the home of the murdered men. She had not encouraged Reely's attentions, it is declared, but rather spurned them.

The girl thought the note was a joke and showed it to several of her friends. Her mother frequently sent her to the bachelors' home on errands and on other occasions the girl made friendly visits upon the elderly men.

Reely's parents live near Paupores, which is twenty-five miles west of Duluth.

IS CHAMPION PORK RAISER

North Dakota Boy Wins First Prize And Girl Second.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 12.—Charles Russell, a sixteen-year-old boy living in Bottineau county, is the champion pig raiser of North Dakota. Incidentally he has proved that pig raising is an exceedingly profitable industry for farmers of this state. He received a cash prize of $100.

The results of the first pork production contest ever held in the United States, which was conducted by Thomas P. Cooper, director of the North Dakota Experiment station, were announced and prove conclusively in the opinion of Mr. Cooper, that excellent profits may be made from pork production by the farmers of the state under proper conditions.

Girls also entered the contest. Anna Barret, thirteen years old, living in La Moure county, won second prize.

BOYS CONFESS TO MURDER

Admit Killing Recluse for Purpose of Robbery.

Wausau, Wis., Jan. 12.—Ralph Clark and Ralph Schultz, each nineteen years old, of Gilmanton, were arrested here charged with murdering Ole Johnson Skjorum, a Norwegian recluse of Buffalo county. Both confessed.

On Jan. 1 they went to the house for the purpose of robbery and hit Skjorum on the head with a piece of wood, stunning him. They then ransacked the house, but found no money. Skjorum revived and was hit on the head with the butt of a revolver and killed.

CONFESSES OLD LYNCHING

Illinois Man Admits Part in Hanging in 1886.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 12.—Reason Trigg, seventy-two years old, a retired farmer of Findlay, Ill., is in the Platt county jail in Monticello, having confessed to being one of a mob who hanged Henry Wildman in the Monticello jail yard on the night of Oct. 13, 1886. He says he tied the rope to the tree that since meeting a daughter of Wildman last summer at a chautauqua his conscience has troubled him and he wanted to confess.

PRESIDENT STARTS NORTH

Wilson Declares He Has Enjoyed His Southern Visit.

Pass Christian, Miss., Jan. 11.—After nearly three weeks of rest and recreation at a little cottage near the gulf coast here President Wilson bade farewell to the Southland. He told Mayor Sausier and a crowd of citizens who gathered at the station to bid him godspeed he had enjoyed his vacation, had benefited greatly by the change of climate and had obtained exactly the rest he had desired.

The president and his family will arrive in Washington early Tuesday morning.

The president has written a rough draft of his message to trust reform, but will not send it to the printer or arrange for its delivery until he has talked it over with others.

Now, just what is the Little Falls Herald, democratic from the bottom of the last column to the top of the first, attempting to do by printing the following paragraph editorially which will give one the impression that in Morrison county postmasters should be appointed by the present administration in accordance with their willingness or ability to donate to the campaign fund: "In our last issue we mentioned the fact that an appointment for postmaster had been received by a gentleman who had given the county committee as much as 25 cents to assist in the Wilson victory. We also know of another democratic patriot-postmaster, who gave 25 cents less than the above mentioned amount."

Figures taken from the U. S. department of agriculture report for 1913 show that Minnesota leads a group of ten states, Iowa, Illinois, South Dakota, Nebraska, Indiana, Ohio, North Dakota, Michigan and Wisconsin, in the production of corn, oats, rye and potatoes, and is a close second and third in everything else. The fact that Minnesota has not only beaten but badly beaten the old original corn states of Iowa, Illinois and Indiana in the production of that very important crop is of more than passing significance, and has established the fact that Minnesota is a corn state and the splendid production this year is one of the best advertising cards imaginable, and is backed up by the cereal crop report of the government. Pass it along.

Editor Schurman, in his St. Paul Times, seems to have been misled in the information he has been absorbing regarding the recent election held in this city. The Times says: "They did not adopt the commission charter in Brainerd notwithstanding that it was made the topic of pulpit effort the preceding Sunday. Somehow when the pulpit gets to talking politics it seems to lose its old time power. The gospel is like a yardstick a good deal. You can measure every kind of conduct by it, no matter what the material. If a man is using the gospel yardstick his conscience will regulate his life and character. The people of Brainerd are to be congratulated in their good sense in not chasing after strange gods. A home rule charter was adopted by that city only five years ago."

Spooner is making plans to capture the summer meeting, or outing if you please, of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association, and will attend the Little Falls meet on Friday and Saturday of this week with arguments that cannot be disputed as to why the newspaper boys and girls should make their pleasure trip to that section. Editor Erickson tells the Bemidji Pioneer that "our Canadian cousins at Rainy River, Kenora and other points on Rainy River and Lake of the Woods are very anxious to assist the people of Spooner and Baudette in entertaining the association in June. If successful in our efforts we are practically assured of having the big steamer "Kenora" for a special trip on Lake of the Woods that could not be duplicated for $25 per passenger." The Dispatch sees no reason why the invitation of Editor Erickson and the city of Spooner should not be accepted unanimously, it's a delightful country to visit, filled with generous, openhearted people that will vie with each other in giving the members who can make the trip the time of their lives. We vote for Spooner for the June meeting.

RICHARD PARKER DIED SATURDAY

Pioneer Business Man of Brainerd and Old Time Printer Died of Heart Failure

THE END CAME AT HIS HOME

Had Built the Parker Store Occupied by George F. Murphy and Platted Parker's Addition

Heart failure on Saturday evening at 11 o'clock was the cause of the passing away of Richard Parker, one of the pioneer business men of Brainerd and an old time printer.

Mr. Parker, who was 73 years old, had been feeling well and working steadily and the family had no inkling that dissolution was so near. On Saturday evening as he sat at home with his wife he suddenly passed away. Death came calmly and peacefully.

He was born in Ramsgate, Kent, England, October 11, 1840. In 1868 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Cossins. They came to the United States, settling first in Tennessee and later in 1872, removing to Brainerd. Mr. Parker accompanied M. C. Russell who started the first paper in Brainerd. Mr. Russell having charge of the editorial work and Mr. Parker of the printing. This paper was later merged in and became the Brainerd Tribune.

Mr. Parker was engaged in the mercantile business and built the Parker block on Front street, whose main floor is occupied by George F. Murphy. Mr. Parker platted Parker's addition in Southeast Brainerd, and in many ways was identified with the growth of the city.

He leaves a wife and two sons and a daughter, the children being A. R. Parker of Livingston, Mont., A. Q. Parker of Brainerd and Mrs. C. A. Walker of Santa, Idaho. The funeral arrangements have not been announced until all relatives can be communicated with. The sympathy of their many friends is freely extended to the family in its sad bereavement.

DEATH OF MRS. HENRY FRAZER

Passed Away Saturday at Her Home in Northeast Brainerd Surrounded by Family

Mrs. Henry Frazer, wife of Henry Frazer, passed away Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at her home at 714 Elm street, Northeast. Miss Lea Jarvis, later Mrs. Frazer, was born in 1841 at Montreal, Canada, and came to Henderson, Minn., in 1855 and in 1856 was married to Henry Frazer, who is an old settler and pioneer of Minnesota.

Twelve children were born to them, seven of whom are living and were at her bedside when she passed away. These were Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. William Kalligher, Mrs. Joseph Beliveau, Mrs. William Schlange, Isaac Frazer, Joseph Frazer and Leo J. Frazer.

There are 23 grand children, two of whom live in Brainerd and are Mrs. Fred Reese and Ray Kalligher, a local barber.

There are 16 great grand children, eleven of them being on Mrs. James Russell's side of the family.

Mrs. Frazer was known as a kind hearted Christian woman and a devout believer in the Catholic faith. Rev. Father LeMay, of the St. Matthias church, administered the last rites of the church to her on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frazer came to Brainerd in 1899. Mr. Frazer is about 88 years of age and served under General Sherman during the Civil war, being with his corps in the famous march to the sea.

The funeral was held on Monday morning, January 12, from St. Francis Catholic church, interment being in Evergreen cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family in its sad bereavement.

SAVES HUSBAND FROM MAD BULL

Special to Dispatch:

Sylvan, Minn., January 12—Hearing the anguished cries for help given by Hamilton Knowles who was being trampled by a mad Jersey bull, Mrs. Knowles sprang to the defense of her husband, seized an ax and beat the infuriated animal on the head until he released her husband and enabled her to carry the badly injured man to the shelter of their home. Neighbors say no braver deed was ever done in the history of that section and all commend the woman for her plucky and heroic act. Knowles will be laid up some weeks from the injuries received.

PLAN ROBBERIES IN CITY SATURDAY

Sneak Thieves Call up Several Merchants on Pretexts to Have Them Leave Store

B. SOLOSKI IS ROBBED OF $39.00

While He was out of Store on a Fake Phone Call, Sneak Thief Tapped His Till

The robbery of B. Soloski Saturday noon, when his store suffered a loss of $39, the money being taken from the till, now appears to have been but one of many robberies planned.

It appears that a gang of three may have been operating in the city. One was stationed in the telephone booth at the National hotel and called up various merchants, the pretext being that an express package was at the depot and that the merchant was needed there to identify the same. Then while the storekeeper was gone at the noon hour the place was to be robbed.

Mr. Soloski was out of the store but a few minutes, but in that time one of the sneak thieves entered the place and stole the money.

The store of P. J. Oberst, the shoe man, was called up. The clerk first locked the safe and cash register before going out. Later Mr. Oberst was called and he locked up safe and cash register before leaving and then visited the depot, freight office and post-office looking for the mythical package. Nothing was stolen from his store.

So far no arrests have been made and the band with its fake express package story has probably emigrated to other pastures to try the same game.

A young woman, a stranger in the city, worked another new game on a local merchant. She made a purchase and left the store. Returning in a few moments, she claimed she had lost her pocketbook. Search was made for it and it was found on the floor near a counter. She opened it and there was nothing in it. She claimed some money had been taken out of it and made so much fuss before a lot of customers that the proprietor put up the money out of his own pocket to get rid of her.

The Man Who Neglects Himself

When his condition points to kidney trouble takes an unwise risk. Backache, pain and soreness over the kidneys, nervous or dizzy spells, poor sleep, are all symptoms that will disappear with the regular use of Foley Kidney Pills. They put the kidneys and bladder in a clean, strong and healthy condition. H. P. Dunn.—Adv't

FIVE MINUTE CURE IF STOMACH IS BAD

When "Pape's Diapiesin" Reaches Stomach all Indigestion, Gas and Sourness Disappears

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—comes as soon as Pape's Diapiesin is in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—Adv't.

PROSPERITY IS EVIDENT IN COUNTY

Personal Property Taxes Being Promptly Paid, Said County Treasurer S. R. Adair

OTHER TAXES NOT NEGLECTED

Payment of Real Estate Taxes is Proof that Real Estate of County is Moving

Crow Wing county, as a whole, is a prosperous section of the grand state of Minnesota.

At the county treasurer's office personal property taxes are being paid with a promptness that amazes the average man.

"I believe that the publication of the personal property taxes in the Dispatch is a great aid to the county," said Mr. Adair. "People read of the taxes and they come down to the court house and pay up. Many of them say, 'Well, I guess I'll fix up those taxes while I think about it.'"

These personal taxes are due and payable now, the last day being February 28. On March 1 a penalty of 10 per cent attaches to all delinquent taxes.

Real estate taxes are being paid for the current year and this is evidence that people have money on hand and it also shows that real estate is moving in the county, that real estate deals are under way, sales being made and taxes are cleared up when transfers are made.

Crow Wing county has had most excellent crops. The mining development proceeds unchecked. Cold weather and heavy snow will cause the re-employment of many shop men.

MRS. PETER OLSON DEAD

Passed Away January 11th After an Illness of Two Years—Funeral on Wednesday

Mrs. Dorthea Olson, wife of Peter Olson, 1323 Oak street, passed away on January 11 after an illness of two years. She was born February 19, 1859 at Lofoten, Norway and was at the time of her death 55 years old. Together with husband and family she came to America on June 6, 1904 and took up her residence in Southeast Brainerd where she lived until her death.

She is survived by her husband Peter Olson, and nine children whose names are William, Peter H., Helga, Hovald, Rangvald, Halvdan, Dagred, Dagmar and Astrid who all reside in the city and two brothers, Ole Stene of this city and Tobias Peterson of Norway.

The deceased was a devoted member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Free church of this city and she will be sadly missed by both pastor and congregation. She was a faithful Christian and a woman of generous and sympathetic nature.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the home and at 3 o'clock at the church, Rev. M. L. Hougstad officiating.

REOPENS LANDS TO ENTRY

A 40-Acre Tract Near Gull Lake Included in Separate Bill—Others at Mississippi Headwater

A bill has been introduced in congress by Representative Lindbergh to reopen to homestead entry a 40-acre tract near Gull Lake formerly reserved for reservoir purposes, according to Washington dispatches. Another bill has been introduced to reopen to homestead entry the lands formerly reserved for reservoir purposes at the headwater of the Mississippi river which have been found not necessary for flowage purposes for the reservoirs. These lands will all be filed on as soon as the bills are passed and the government makes the announcement that they are open to entry.

COUNCIL HAS MEETING

Ordinance Introduced Prohibiting Minors from Entering Saloons—Its Provisions

At the council meeting Friday evening the gas ordinance was discussed, but no definite action was taken. The vote of the city special election was not canvassed, that being deferred to a later meeting.

The street commissioner filed an inventory of city property. The resignation of Mr. Wilmar, as a member of the library board, was received and accepted.

The council gave the first reading to an ordinance prohibiting minors from entering saloons, and providing punishment for misstatement of ages, identity, etc. In full it states as follows:

Ordinance No. 258, an ordinance to prevent minors or other persons by misrepresentations, from procuring intoxicating liquors, or loitering in places where such liquors are sold, and fixing penalties for the violation thereof, received its first reading.

The ordinance provides that any person who, with intent to procure intoxicating liquor to be sold, given, bartered, furnished, or delivered to him, either directly or indirectly, or with intent to procure permission to be or remain in a place where such liquor is sold or given away, shall make any false representation as to his age, name or identity, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days. The ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

The council adjourned to Saturday evening at which time Architect C. H. Parsons presented plans for a city hall.

A special meeting of the council will be held Wednesday evening, January 14, when the vote of the special election will be canvassed.

Exercises to Take Place in Elk's Hall on Friday Evening, January Twenty-third

The tenth annual graduating exercises of the training school for nurses of the Northern Pacific railway hospital will be held at Elk's hall on Friday evening, January 23, at 8 o'clock.

The class of 1914 includes seven, being the Misses Bessie Irene Koyl, Glennadean Kerr, Martha Bradley Perry, Florence Emily Miller, Bessie Marie Borgers, Mary Lulu Armstrong and Ruth Muriel Armstrong.

The program includes the invocation, music, address to the graduating class by Dr. W. A. Coventry, the presentation of diplomas and badges and concluding with a musical selection.

Immediately following the exercises the N. P. B. A. nurses graduating class will give an informal dancing party.

CHAIN OF POOR MEN'S BANKS.

Side Lights on Loan Project in Which Carnegie Is Interested.

A system of industrial loan banks on a scale much larger than has ever before been attempted in this country is about to begin operations in New York and elsewhere.

The movement has for its purpose the elimination of the loan shark by enabling workmen to get small loans without security other than good character.

Andrew Carnegie and Vincent Astor are said to be interested in the project, which is under the direction of Dr. Elgin R. L. Gould of New York.

Julian Rosenwald of Chicago is another leading promoter of the scheme. The experiments on which the larger movement is to a certain extent predicated, according to Dr. Gould, have taken place in sixteen cities and towns during the last four years.

While the scheme is philanthropic in its nature, Dr. Gould says it is to be undertaken only after experiments convince the organizers that it will pay its own way and be in no sense a charity.

Fire Terms in Japan.

Fires in Japan are so common that this destructive agency has established itself as a national institution, and a whole vocabulary has grown up to express every shade of meaning in matters fiery. The Japanese language has special terms for an incendiary fire, an accidental fire, fires starting from one's own house, a fire caught from next door, a fire which one shares with others, a fire which is burning to an end, the flame of a fire, anything—for instance, a brazier, from which a fire may arise; the side from which to attack a fire in order to extinguish it; a visit of condolence after a fire.—London Mail.

"MICHAEL'S"

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"Lavender and Old Lace"

"Lavender and Old Lace" was presented at the Brainerd opera house Sunday evening with Sarah Padden in the stellar role. David G. Fischer has well dramatized Myrtle Reed's wholesome story of New England life. As Ruth Thorne, Miss Padden was a most lovable heroine, giving a touch of dry humor to many of her lines. There is plenty of comedy in the play. Hepsey, Joe Pendleton and Captain Ball provide many a laugh. "Lavender and Old Lace" is bright and wholesome and has just enough of mystery to impart a little thrill.

Casad, Irvin and Casad are seen in their own version of "Every Day Life on a Railroad." They are originators of the musical telephone. They introduce plenty of comedy work and are entertainers of the highest class. The picture shown at the Grand are headliners and very pleasing.

"Home Travel Pictures"

Forewarned is forearmed. Ladies who contemplate a trip to the Grand Canyon of Arizona and who expect to undertake the adventurous descent into the depths of the canyon should wisely witness Lyman H. Howe's reproduction of it at the Brainerd opera house on Saturday, Jan. 17. They will not only see exactly what the trip implies but also what it involves. For one thing, they will know that no woman attempts to make the trip unless she first dons a divided skirt. After traversing the first downward mile, the grades seem to become more and more frightful. That so few accidents occur here must be ascribed to the fact that the much-ridiculed mules really know much better how to scramble over or cling to the walls of perpendicular rocks than human beings do.

Coughs that Prevent Sleep

These coughs are wearing and if they "hang on," can run one down physically and lower the vital resistance to disease. Mr. Bob Ferguson, 319 Pine St., Green Bay, Wisc., writes, "I was greatly troubled with a bad cough that kept me awake nights. Two small bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured me." AN OLD MAID IN
LINCOLN'S EYES

Remarkable Letter Emancipator
Wrote To Be Sold.

WOOLING THRUST UPON HIM

Placed in an Embarrassing Position as Result of a Rash Agreement, He Later Penned Grotesque Account of the Lady and Unexpected Outcome of the Strange Romance.

Major William H. Lambert, civil war veteran, who died in Philadelphia June 1, 1912, owned the finest Abraham Lincoln and William M. Thackeray collections in existence. Owing to his death
they have come into the public market
and will be sold at auction.

Perhaps the item of greatest general interest in part one is the five page quarto letter written by Lincoln to Mrs. Orville H. Browning, telling how he made love to Mary S. Owens, afterward Mary S. Vineyard, asked her to marry him and was rejected. The letter, which is worn at the folds, is dated Springfield, April 1, 1858. Lincoln first met Miss Owens in 1833 at the house of Mrs. Bennett Able, her sister. The letter reads in part:

"It was then, in the autumn of 1836,
that a married lady of my acquaintance (Mrs. Able) and who was a great friend of mine being about to pay a visit to her father and other relatives
residing in Kentucky proposed to me that on her return she would bring a sister of hers with her on condition that I would engage to become her brother-in-law with all convenient dispatch. I had seen the said sister some three years before, thought her intelligent and agreeable and saw no good objection to plodding through life hand in hand with her.

"A Trifle Too Willing."

"Time passed on. The lady took her journey and in due time returned, sister in company, sure enough. This stomached me a little, for it appeared to me that her coming so readily showed that she was a trifle too willing, but on reflection it occurred to me that she might have been prevailed on by her married sister to come without any thing concerning me having been mentioned to her.

"In a few days we had an interview,
and, although I had not seen her before, she did not look as my imagination had pictured her. I knew she was oversized, but now she appeared a fair match for Falstaff. I knew she was called an 'old maid,' and I felt no doubt of the truth of at least half of the appellation. A kind of notion ran in my head that nothing could have commenced at the size of infancy and reached her present bulk in less than thirty-five or forty years, and, in short,

I was not at all pleased with her.

"But what could I do? I had told her sister that I would take her for better or for worse, and I made a point of honor and conscience in all things to stick to my word.

"At once I determined to consider her my wife, and, this done, all my powers of discovery were put to work in search of perfections in her which might be fairly set off against her defects. I tried to imagine her handsome, which, but for her unfortunate corpulency, was actually true.

Unexpected Developments.
"After all my sufferings upon this deeply interesting subject, here I am,
wholly, unexpectedly, completely out of the 'scrape,' and I now want to know if you can guess how I got out of it—out clear in every sense of the term—no violation of word, honor or conscience. I don't believe you can guess, and so I may as well tell you at once. As the lawyer says, it was done in the manner following, to wit:
After I had delayed the matter as long as I thought I could in honor do I concluded I might as well bring it to a consummation without further delay, and so I mustered my resolution and made the proposal to her direct;
but, shocking to relate, she answered 'No.'

"At first I supposed she did it through an affection of modesty,
which I thought but ill became her under the peculiar circumstances of her case, but on my renewal of the charge I found she repelled it with greater firmness than before. I tried it again with the same success, or,
rather, with the same want of success.
I finally was forced to give it up, at which I very unexpectedly found myself mortified almost beyond endurance.

"And to cap the whole I then for the first time began to suspect that I was really a little in love with her. But let it go. I'll try and outlive it. Others have been made fools of by the girls, but this can never with truth be said of me. I most emphatically in this instance made a fool of myself.
I have now come to the conclusion never again to think of marrying, and for this reason I can never be satisfied with any one who would be blockhead
enough to have me."

Lincoln was twenty-seven years old when his marriage proposal to Miss Owens was rejected.

Crazy.
"We find the prisoner not guilty by reason of insanity."

"But the plea was not that of insanity," remarked the court.

"That's just the point we made," rejoined the foreman. "We decided that any man who didn't have sense enough to know that an insanity plea was the proper caper must be crazy."—Philadelphia Ledger.

ROAR OF THE THUNDER.

Its Length and Strength Depend Upon the Lightning Flash.

Lightning is the glare of a prodigious
electric spark that is turned loose from some place no longer strong enough to hold it and forms a terrific blinding arc as it leaps from cloud to cloud or from cloud to earth.
The little spark of a laboratory machine makes a crackling noise, and the gigantic one in the sky makes a correspondingly great one as it tears
through the air and sets up vibrations
of tremendous intensity.

But it is noticeable in a thunderstorm that the thunderclaps are of very different loudness and quality of sound. The length and strength of a thunder peal, as a meteorologist points out in knowledge, depend mainly on the size of the accompanying lightning discharge, but the loudness and sharpness of the crack that comes before the peal depend chiefly on the direction taken by the electric current relative to the hearer.

The first crack or rending noise
comes from the flash itself; the peal that follows consists of echoes from the clouds or mountain sides when hills are near. Furthermore, the noise of the actual flash comes to us from all along the lightning's path. We hear first that at the beginning of the flash and later the noise made toward the end of its path. When this is short and we are so situated with reference to it that the whole report reaches our ears almost simultaneously, say in a quarter of a second, it sounds like one terrible thump or crash. But if the electric arc is long and the noise takes two or three seconds to reach us completely it translates itself into a long, tearing roar. Thus you may judge of the character of a lightning flash from its own report of proceedings.

A Useless Pause.
Calhoun Clay was getting married.
Little and lean, he stood at the altar
beside a tall and robust bride of 180 pounds or more. The ceremony proceeded regularly until in the bride's reply the words "to love, honor and obey" were pronounced.

At this juncture Bridegroom Calhoun Clay held up his right hand. A pause ensued. In the silence Calhoun said:
"Excuse me, please, but Ah would have us wait a moment 'let de full solemnity o' de words sink in—especially de last two. Ah's been married befo'."—Washington Star.

Persian Bread.
The Persian native bread today is very little different from that used a thousand years ago. The Persian oven is built of smooth masonry work in the ground and is usually about the size of a barrel. Many of them have been used for a century. The dough is formed into thin sheets about a foot long and two feet wide and slapped against the side of the oven. It bakes in a few minutes.

CANNON'S SWAN
SONG OFTEN SUNG

Uncle Joe Facetiously Referred to It on Eve of Retirement.

HIS LAST DAYS IN POLITICS

Fight in 1910, When Veteran Speaker of the House Triumphed Over His Foes—Thirty-eight Years in Congress, It Was Reported He Might Run Again.

In the closing days of the Sixty-second congress newspapers were every day printing stories about defeated members singing their swan songs on the floor of the house. Joseph G. Cannon, enjoying the distinction of longer service in the house than any other man in the history of the United States,
made several speeches in rapid succession, and each one was described in the public prints as his swan song.

The night that he attended the farewell reception to Representative Mc-Kinley of Illinois, also a "dead duck," Uncle Joe was down on the program
for a speech.

"Every time I make a speech," he declared, "the newspapers say I am singing my swan song. Just to escape that this time and to show that I'm a young buck with lots of years to live,
I will now do a song and dance."

Whereupon he sang a coon song and did a dance that would have made a chorus girl turn green with envy.

One of Famous Four.

Although more than 13,000 men have served in the lower branch of congress since the house of representatives assembled for the first time in 1789, only four of them served thirty years or more and Cannon, who served thirty-eight, was at seventy-seven the youngest old man in public life. Elected to the Forty-third congress, he was elected to every congress thereafter
until his defeat in 1912 by Frank T.
O'Hair, with the exception of the Fifty-second congress. Four times he was speaker of the house of representatives.

Since his return to private life at Danville, Ill., it has been reported at various times that he would run again this year. He was noncommittal when asked about it.

Official Washington's Farewell.

The former speaker's leave-taking of Washington was made memorable on Feb. 15 last he was tendered a farewell dinner which was attended by President Taft, members of the Taft cabinet and many prominent men regardless of political affiliations.

When the guests assembled they found at each place a souvenir program with a poetical tribute unsigned,
but written by Representative Moore.
It read:

The storms may come, the winds may
blow,
The saplings and the pines may fall,
But, tempered to the sun and snow,
The sturdy oak survives them all.
And so in legislative hall,
Where men and measures come and go,
On Fame's enduring record calls,
The honor rests with Uncle Joe.

Inseparably associated with Uncle
Joe, perhaps the quaintest figure in national politics, was the ever present Cannon cigar, and on the reverse side of the program beneath the curling smoke of a pictured cigar ran this couplet:

You may break, you may shatter, the mould if you will,
But the Cannon aroma will hang to them
still.

His Memorable Battle of 1910.

It was in the middle of March, 1910,
that Speaker Cannon's star began to set. At the end of three days and three nights of bitter parliamentary battle he and his faithful band were overruled on a critical point of order, and Uncle Joe was deprived of the chairmanship of the all powerful rules committee of the house.

Counseling complete surrender, the senate leaders called upon Uncle Joe to resign as speaker. In indignation he waved them from his room. He had not yet begun to fight. And when the "elder statesman" had retired to his room the capitol Uncle Joe climbed back into his chair and hurled defiance at the victors.

"I will not entertain a motion," he declared, while the house listened with breathless suspense, "to declare vacant the speakership of the house."
It was a gage of battle, and the speaker seemed to have calculated well that the insurgents had gone as far as they dared. The motion was made and lost, and the speaker sat secure again upon his throne, but with his scepter nicked.

For three days and three nights he had been at high tension in the center of the crisis, the man upon whom and against whom all was being waged.
Then came the moment of defeat and the challenge that stemmed defeat brought out victory again, with Uncle Joe triumphant.

From that time on his political prestige suffered impairment, but even so,
his defeat for re-election in 1912 was a national surprise.

A Substitute Much Cheaper Than Hay.
Brigadier General John J. Pershing at Mindanao, P. I., has forty acres of "guinea grass" under cultivation which costs exactly 62 cents per hundred-weight as against 25 for hay from San Francisco. Cultivation of this grass will be started in other parts of the Philippines to supply army forage needs.

CHEERFULNESS.

It is generally supposed that a light and buoyant temperament
tends to frivolity and to fickleness, but no man is so well qualified to discharge the duties of life as one who acts through a temperament that is glowing and genial.

powder and cotton and a tin can.

Debutantes in Washington official society circles have taken up housekeeping and running their fathers' establishments as one of the very latest

SURE SIGNS OF DEATH.

Guided by Them, There Is Little Danger of Premature Burial.

There is a widespread belief among educated persons that burial while still alive is, though not probable, at least possible. As evidence of this belief one has but to notice how many persons leave instructions in their wills
for the taking of special precautions to guard against this most dreadful of catastrophes.

When embalming takes place, of course, there is no possibility of being buried alive, yet being killed by embalming fluid instead of being allowed to revive and spend many more years
on earth is not the fate one would select.

Although there is but one infallible
sign of death—namely, putrefaction—
yet there are many other signs, no one of which is incontrovertible, yet that when taken together, even in the absence of putrefaction, make the diagnosis absolutely sure.

The heart may stop beating, but this does not necessarily mean that the patient is dead. The writer recalls a case in his personal observation when a woman's heart stopped beating thirty-four times in twelve hours and each time was started up again by injections of brandy and of nitroglycerin.
That is more than six years ago, and the woman is alive and strong today.

It is often very difficult to tell the precise moment of death, but when the heart refuses to respond to stimulation, when the body becomes rigid,
when the blood coagulates and the eyeballs become flaccid and lose their tension, then there is no doubt that death has come. The greatest safeguard against premature burial is the length of time that in this country elapses before the body is consigned to the ground.—New York World.

A Source of Glory.

All Scotsmen take a pride in their native land, but none more than the old gardener of Duddingston, of whom the New York Tribune tells the following story:

The gardener was showing to a tourist the beauties of the loch and of the little village. It was evening, and as he expatiated on the lovely scene and on the glories of his country, the moon
rose over a hill.

The old man stopped short in the middle of a speech and gazed at the moon in admiration.

After a moment he turned to the tourist and said: "There's a moon fur ye! I tell ye, mon, we're a grand nation!"

solves the poisonous uric acid sub-

poison from the blood, and drive it out of the system.
